

Yes This Ones For You
Lucy Spraggan

In the whole refrain the chord is D, but she changes from g string, to d string to a string. Very fast. You ll get into it. But almost the whole last sentence she keeps her point finger on the a string. This is my first one, so please be gentle with me. And remember capo on 8th fret.

Vivid dreams of the you I don t know yet
So amazing and I ll never forget
You re the one for me.
I felt so safe where I should be
The best damn night with the one of my dreams, literally.

I think about your face for days and days
And I find myself scrollin down your facebook page
And now I see..
My friends know I m the worst, a hopeless flirt
But even wearing armor I can still get hurt
I just healed

D A
And you re the one that I need
Bm
You re the air that I breathe
G
You re the only one that I want to rely on
D A
You re that beat in my heart
Bm
I m a shot in the dark
G
You re the only one to turn the light on

And so it goes the whole song!

You re the one that I need
You re the air that I breathe
You re the only one that I want to rely on
You re that beat in my heart
I m a shot in the dark
You re the only one to turn the light on

I hurt you, I know that s true, but I d never leave your side again I ve thought all this through
And I want you.
I d ask you, to meet up soon, but I guess you re probably busy and I guess that that s cool.

But where are you?
cause...

And you re the one that I need
You re the air that I breathe
You re the only one that I want to rely on
You re that beat in my heart
I m a shot in the dark
You re the only one to turn the light on
You re the one that I love
You re the sun from above
You re the only one I want to grow old with
You re a pain in the ass
I m a stake in the grass
But I love you so you ll have to put up with it

It took so long, to write this song
And if you think this ones for you babe.. you re not wrong.

We could stay up again til the early AM
Scribble on some paper and that d make me smile again,
If you were here..

And you re the one that I need
You re the air that I breathe
You re the only one that I want to rely on
You re that beat in my heart
I m a shot in the dark
You re the only one to turn the light on
You re the one that I love
You re the sun from above
You re the only one I want to grow old with
You re a pain in the ass
I m a stake in the grass
But I love you so you ll have to put up with it

You re the one that I see, you re the wind in the trees
You re the smile that could light up the darkest day
You re the one in my dreams, and I guess that it seems
That that is all I would like to say.
