Lucy Wainwright Roche

[Intro]

C

[Verse]

C

You can have another

G

But take me as a lover

F

C

I will be a secret that you keep

C

Someone to remind you

G

And, yes, to leave behind you

F

C

And someone to recall when youâ€™re asleep

[Verse]

Am

F

And though Iâ€™m hoping you will hear the many things I say

Am

D7

Just remember all of them are off the record anyway

[Chorus]

C

Meet me by the water

G

Someoneâ€™s wife and someoneâ€™s daughter

C

None of these will be my name today

[Verse]

C

Just under two million

G

This city has itâ€™s fill of

C

People living deep within itâ€™s walls

C

Fuelled by valley power

G

Pumping watts for every hour

F

C

Oh, and you would be the brightest of them all

[Verse]

Am

F

And if we say goodbye like we always will

Am

D7

I will watch you in my memory on that distant hill

[Chorus]

C

Meet me by the water

G

Someone's wife and someone's daughter

C

None of these will be my name today

[Instrumental]

Am F Am D C G F C

[Verse]

C

Take me to the ocean

G

The ever changing motion

F

C

The Highway 17 Express will do

C

Living on a fault-line

G

We don't have a lot of time

F

C

I read it in the Mercury News

[Verse]

Am

F

I know there must have been a way to fight a better fight

Am

D7

To shine like Santa Clara Country on its clearest night

[Chorus]

C

Meet me by the water

G

Someone's wife and someone's daughter

F

C

None of these will be my name today

[Chorus]

C

Meet me by the water

G

Someone's wife and someone's daughter

F

None of these will be my name today
