

Open Season

Lucy Wainwright Roche

[Intro]

Am

[Verse]

 C F Am
Open season on a broken heart
 C F Am
This is the year they take the summer apart
 C F Am
There is a magic to the carnival arts
 C F Am
And I can hear the sound

[Verse]

 C F C Am
Is it the wind through the wonder-wheel
 C F Am
Is it the science of the way we feel
 C F C Am
Is it the quiet of that old appeal
 C F F G F G C
Will you be mine again?

[Chorus]

 G
My love, my love, are you on a winter beach tonight
 Am G F C
Waiting on a last chance rocket ride over the boardwalk
 G
Follow the noise, no one but me and the neighbourhood boys
 Am F C F Am
Will remember where we were when this went down

[Verse]

 C F Am
The ocean calls us like weâ€™ve never been
 C F Am
One hundred games that we will never win
 C F C Am
Close your eyes and hear the teacups spin
 C F C Am
As it begins to snow

[Verse]

 C F Am
And if weâ€™re careful thatâ€™s not all youâ€™ll hear
 C F Am

The mermaids watch us steal a souvenir

C F C Am

And whisper moral warnings in our ear

C F F G F G C

As we are heading home

[Chorus]

G

My love, my love, are you on a winter beach tonight

Am G F C

Waiting on a last chance rocket ride over the boardwalk

G

Follow the noise, no one but me and the neighbourhood boys

Am F C F Am

Will remember where we were when this went down

[Verse]

C F Am

So take a deeper breath let's hear you sing

C F Am

And reach your hand out for an iron ring

C F Am

You'll get another chance, oh, that's the thing

C F Am

We will be back again

[Verse]

C F Am

The summer comes around on any clock

C F Am

Awash with bathing suits and polka dots

C F Am

We'll ride the subways to their final stops

C F

To see the sea again
