```
Starting Square
Lucy Wainwright Roche
[Intro]
[Verse]
Hello and from there where else can we go, Hello
A song, I'm expected now to play along with a song
You crook, just a boy sitting there with his book
And a smile that the camera took
                     C
Leaving you just the same as you always look
[Verse]
                  \mathbf{Em}
As for me, I'm as changed as a girl can be, can't you see
That I've flown to the edges of the earth and home, I've flown
From your chair, I can tell you can tell it from there
That I may have been everywhere
But I'm back, back to the starting square
[Verse]
                     \mathbf{Em}
In my nights, I have bargained with the eastern lights, in my nights
                  Em
                                             C
Weâ€^{\text{\tiny{IM}}}ve met and the trouble was no trouble at all to forget
Dreaming, we spoke, chalked it up to a terrible joke
And then we each took a hold of the rope
With one match and the problem went up in smoke
[Verse]
                          Em
It's just there, it's not right or wrong or fair, it's just there
A big heart, a rotten ending and a fumbling start, a big heart
And isn't it so that when I see you at the end of this show
                                    G
```