Intro: E

E

My ancestors planted some sequoias by a road

A

E

I've driven down that road since I was born

E

Oh never have you ever seen so many perfect evergreens

B

E

But I would chop them all down just for you

E

I have walked a million miles in a hundred pairs of shoes

E

In search of some universal truth

E

Well a deity just came to me and handed me a scroll to read

E

And I will gladly pass it on to you

A

Anything for you

E

All of this is true

A

But the best story that I could ever tell

E

Is the one where I am growing old with you

E

I was having rotten luck and nothing went my way

E

Til I stumbled on a clearing in the woods

E

I found a town of leprechauns and grabbed each one for wishing on

E

But I would let them all go just for you

E
I have crossed a natural plane and communed with the dead

A E
But people always seem to want some proof

A E
No one even would believe my luck of evil I got pictures of

A B E
But I would throw them all out just for you

B A

E B A
Anything for you

E
All of this is true

E A
But the best story that I could ever tell

B A E
Is the one where I am growing old with you

E
My scar is from a polar bear, my curse is from a witch

A E
I ve caught a giant squid in all the seven seas

A E
I ve picked up rocks from distant moons astronomers will discover soon

A B E
But I would give them all back just for you

E
I ve gotten drunk and shot the breeze with kings of far off lands

A E
They showed me wealth as far as I could see

A E
But their kingdoms seemed all shrively and they cried with jealousy

A B E
When I leaned in and told them about you

B A
I d give up anything

E
Anything for you

B A
I d give it all

E
All of this is true

E A
But the best story that I could ever tell

B A E
Is the one where I am growing old with you

B A E
All I ve ever wanted see, was to tell you honestly

B A E
I d do anything for you

E

I d do absolutely anything for you
