Look at all the stars, we ve come so far
                               Am
                                                            D
Even if we don t know where we are, it s gotta be somewhere great
Man, I don t even know what you re saying
                                             Am
But I can t wait for more of this to come my way
Am
Cos you take what you get and you try not to think

Or am I just too tired to wink?
Em----> (throughout the whole bridge)
I store a cyclops for a week with hard-tack in the clink
If ever he would bat a lid I thought it was a wink
But the world is flush with monocular mush and dingbats to despise
You find they re not thinking, just narrowly blinking
But never quite cleaning their eyes
(chords in the chorus can be played over the solo)
We ve come so far, even if we don t know where we are
It s gotta be somewhere great
Man, I don t even know what you re saying
But I can t wait for more of this to come my way
Cos you take what you get and you try not to think

                                                  Em
Or am I just too tired, or am I just too tired to wink?
