

The Car In Front Of Me
Luke Bryan

the chord placement maybe a little bit off but it sounds right to me..let me know if it needs changing

intro: (D)1 (G)1 (C)1 (G)1 (C)1

G

Homecoming parade, you were the queen

C

I was riding right behind you with the rest of the team

Am

Saw my ring on your finger as you waved to the crowd

C

D

I didn't know a second stringer could ever be so proud

C

G

C

The car in front of me was carrying what i loved more than anything

Em

D

G

C

My sweetest dream was in the car in front of me

G

On Wednesday nights, we'd meet at church

C

You'd bring the kids, and I'd come straight from work

Am

Going home I'd read their lips through the window of your van

C

D

As they sang Jesus loves me, I thought God I'm a lucky man

C

G

C

The car in front of me was carrying what i loved more than anything

Em

D

G

C

My sweetest dream was in the car in front of me

Em

D

C

Even after what the doctor said

G

D

You were strong and you believed

C

Am

D

Am D

And you held us all together through one more spring

G

Their little hands held on to mine

C

As we sat in that backseat with tears in our eyes

Am

A long line of headlights

Strangers stopped along the road

C

D

No Monday wasn't meant for wearing Sunday clothes

C

G

C

The car in front of me was carrying what i loved more than anything

Em

D

G

C

My sweetest dream was in the car in front of me

ENDING: (G)1 (C)1 x2