The Car In Front Of Me Luke Bryan

the chord placement maybe a little bit off but it sounds right to me..let me know if it needs changing intro: (D)l (G)l (C)l (G)l (C)l

G Homecoming parade, you were the queen С I was riding right behind you with the rest of the team Am Saw my ring on your finger as you waved to the crowd D I didn t know a second stringer could ever be so proud C С G The car in front of me was carrying what i loved more than anything G Em D My sweetest dream was in the car in front of me G On Wednesday nights, we d meet at church C You d bring the kids, and I d come straight from work Am Going home I d read their lips through the window of your van С As they sang Jesus loves me, I thought God I m a lucky man С G С The car in front of me was carrying what i loved more than anything D Em G C My sweetest dream was in the car in front of me

EmDCEven after what the doctor saidGDYou were strong and you believedCAmDAm DAnd you held us all together through one more spring

G

Their little hands held on to mine C As we sat in that backseat with tears in our eyes Am A long line of headlights Strangers stopped along the road C D No Monday wasn t meant for wearing Sunday clothes

CGCThe car in front of me was carrying what i loved more than anythingEmDGCCMy sweetest dream was in the car in front of me

ENDING: (G)l (C)l x2