

Lonely One
Luke Combs

Hammer on the index finger when you play G and C

[Intro]

G C D G [x2]

[Verse 1]

G C
Honey, how s that drink goin down
D G
Seems a little stiff for 2 P.M
G C
Holler if you need anything
D G
I ve got an ear to lend
C D
I ll be right here cuttin lines
G D Em
Countin cash and stockin beers
C D
I ve got an idea what s on your mind
G
So in the meantime, think on this

[Chorus]

C G
I ve seen girls like you in here before
C G
Watched broken hearts break
D
Though that door a time or two
C G
And I ll bet he packed all his things
C G D
You set out to curse his name and have a few
C G D
And I ll bet you re doin your best to move on
C D G
Well, you re not the only lonely one

G C D G

[Verse 2]

G C
This ain t my first rodeo
D G

I ve seen the other side of this bar

G C

Pourin salts on an open wound

D G

Sittin right there where you are

C D

And I know it probably stings right now

G D Em

Somehow more than that Jim Beam

C D

But that clock on the wall will cure it all

G

Even though that ain t how it seems

[Chorus]

C G

I ve seen girls like you in here before

C G

Watched broken hearts break

D

Though that door a time or two

C G

And I ll bet he packed all his things

C G D

You set out to curse his name and have a few

C G D

And I ll bet you re doin your best to move on

C D G

Well, you re not the only lonely one

[Bridge]

C D

I ve seen em come, I ve seen em go

G D Em

Girl, you ain t in this thing alone

C D

Oh no, oh no

[Chorus]

C G

I ve seen girls like you in here before

C G

Watched broken hearts break

D

Though that door a time or two

C G

And I ll bet he packed all his things

C G D

You set out to curse his name and have a few

C G D

And I ll bet you re doin your best to move on

C D G

Well, you re not the only lonely one

C D G

No, you re not the only lonely one

G C D G [x2]
