Lukestar

Artist: Lukestar

Song: Flying Canoes

Album: Taiga

Tabbed by: J Goddard (joestar636@hotmail.com)

[VERSE 1]

C#m                      F#                      E                      B
If you save yourself, its right now, its wrong now
C#m                      F#                      E                      B
And even though, it hurts, you'll find out, the way I`m

[CHORUS]

Abm                      D#m                      E                      B
And when they come, they`ll ride
Abm                      D#m                      E                      B
Oh when the wind, with pride
Abm                      D#m                      E                      B
Horses and canoes, easy to choose

[VERSE 2]

C#m                      F#                      E                      B
Spirits are a light, or his mind, in his time
C#m                      F#                      E                      B
She is wise and clear, not night time in her dream

[CHORUS]

Abm                      D#m                      E                      B
And when they come, they ride,
Abm                      D#m                      E                      B
Oh with the wind,with pride
Abm                      D#m                      E                      B
Horses and canoes, easy to choose

[INTERLUDE]

C#m - B x 3

Repeat CHORUS x 2 and fade out

I used two videos of the band live to double check the chord progressions but it is still possible that I messed up somehow. If you see any problems or anything, e-mail me on the address above.

Thanks :)
