

Skinbone Acoustic

Lydia

This is the acoustic version from Lydia's new Acoustics EP; I know this isn't 100% correct but it sounds pretty close.

Only strum each chord once for the chorus.

I realise I made a typo in the title, but it won't let me change it

F C Em

A Smile on my face again

Am

Cause I'm laying with her skin

F C G

I will be here all night

You'd best get your words right

F C Em

Cause I've tangled them before

Am

She caught me running out the back door

F C G

Never will it happen again

Yea I found out I've been

F C Em

Am F

But come on you knew that

C G

You know where my head has been at

But you're still hoping it comes back

F C Em

I thought of words to say

Am

I wrote 'em down for her sake

F C G

Never did she ever complain

Yea she's seen my worst day

F C Em

Cause we've got so much to do

Am

The lights poured through your bedroom

F C G

Never will I leave here again?
