Sonja
Lyle Lovett

D D
Iâ€™ve never been lucky
G D#8232;
At picking up women
G D#8232;
But this life that I live
Em A#8232;
Is not one that I choose
G D#8232;
She was a waitress
G D#8232;
With hair blond and curly
G D#8232;
With a pretty black dress
A D#8232;
And those japanese shoes 

CHORUS:
A#8232; A
Man I need to impress her
G D#8232;
â€™cause Iâ€™d like to undress her
G D#8232;
I need a song about sonja
A D#8232;
When Iâ€™m singing tonight

D#8232; D
She looked so pretty
G D#8232;
As she poured my coffee
G D#8232;
But she had her eye
Em A#8232;
On my friend at the bar
G D#8232;
And I watched her watch him
G D#8232;
And I watched her thinking
G A D#8232;
I wish her eye was on me  

Chorus 
A#8232; A

And if I could sing her

G D#8232;

A tender love ballad

G D#8232;

Iâ€™d hope that the audience

Em A

might sing along

G D#8232;

But I canâ€™t find the right way

G D#8232;

To tell her my feelings

G D A#8232;

And still make the words rhyme with sonja#8232;

D D

No Iâ€™ve never been lucky

G D#8232;

At picking up women

G D#8232;

But this life that I live

Em A#8232;

Is not one that I choose

G D#8232;

She was a waitress

G D#8232;

Now sheâ€™s gone forever

G D#8232;

And Iâ€™m stuck with this song

A D#8232;

That I never will use#8232;

A A #8232;

Man you need to impress her

G D#8232;

If you want to undress her

G D#8232;

Sing a song about sonja

A D#8232;

When youâ€™re singing tonight

G D#8232;

Sing a song about sonja

A D#8232;

When youâ€™re singing tonight
