Em G

Em G

I listen, and still I haven't heard

Em G

Tell me what is the word

C

D

Em G

And if I ever heard it would it be clear as water

Em G

Oh tears run down your face

Em G

Reflects the human race

D

We're all caught up with winnin' losin' time and space

Em G

Life's lessons

Em G

So you think you know it all

Em G

But you're headin' for a fall

C

Ooh to make it back again

D

Em G

You'll have to crawl and step back

Em G

Take a look around

Em G

Are your feet still on the ground

D

Am

Can we find you in the section of lost and found

C

G

Never think you got it Figured Out

D

Am

Cause When You do you begin to doubt

C

It's time for you to open your eyes

(D/F# G C)

Em

C

Will we look back and see what we've done

Em

C

Will we be proud or ashamed of what we've Become

Will we realize we all share one fate
Or is this another life s lesson ... Too late

Solo: Em D/F# Am

Never think you got it Figured Out
Cause When You do you begin to doubt
It s time for you to open your eyes

D/F# G C

Ooohhh ...

Will we look back and see what we ve done
Will we be proud or ashamed of what we ve Become
Will we realize we all share one fate
Or is this another life s lesson ... Too late

Will we look back and see what we ve done

(Em D/F# Am)

Will we realize we all share one fate
Whooooooooooooa life s lessons
