

Chinese Translation

M. Ward

Chinese Translation

M. Ward

Transcribed by John McKeon

D - xx0232

D7 - xx0212

Em - 022000

A - x02220

G - 320003 (320033)(355433)

Gm - 355333

Gmaj7 - 320002

[Chorus]

D

I sailed a wild, wild sea

Em

Climbed up a tall, tall mountain

D

I met a old, old man

A

Beneath a weeping willow tree

D

He said now if you got some questions

Em

Go and lay them at my feet

D

But my time here is brief

A

So you ll have to pick just three

[Chorus]

And I said

D

Gmaj7

What do you do with the pieces of a broken heart?

Gmaj7

And how can a man like me remain in the light?

D

D7

And if life is really as short as they say

G

Gm

Then why is the night so long

A

And then the sun went down

A (let ring)

D

And he sang for me this song

[Bridge]

D Em
See I once was a young fool like you
D
Afraid to do the things
A
That I knew I had to do
A
So I played an escapade just like you
Em A
I played an escapade just like you

[Chorus]

D
I sailed a wild, wild sea
Em
Climbed up a tall, tall mountain
D
I met an old, old man
A
He sat beneath a sapling tree
D
He said now if you got some questions
Em
Go and lay them at my feet
D
But my time here is brief
A
So you ll have to pick just three

[Chorus]

And I said
D Gmaj7
What do you do with the pieces of a broken heart?
Gmaj7
And how can a man like me remain in the light?
D D7
And if life is really as short as they say
G Gm
Then why is the night so long?
A
And then the sun went down
A (let ring) D
And he played for me this song

[solo}