

For Beginners

M. Ward

Here is a great song off of M. Ward's, Hold Time.

Get your friends clapping and a keyboardist and this is a great jam song for feeling good.

When you're absolute beginners,

C F G

it's a panoramic view

C F G

From her majesty Mount Zion,

C F G

and the kingdom is for you

C F G

Uh huh

C F G

Uh huh

C F G

When you tumble upon that valley

C F G

Shark or sparrow line the stairs

C F G

When the arrows start descending,

C F G

then they scatter everywhere

Am Em F G

On a bookshelf in Caladonia sits a map of passageways

C F G

Best to stumble upon Mount Zion

C F G

to behold the natural gates

C F G

Uh huh

C F G

Uh huh

C F G

They say the original sinners

C F G

never felt a drop of pain

C F G

Until that second in the garden,

C F G

then they felt it each and every day

Am Em F G

So draw back your bows, you hunters who have never felt that flame

C F G

All the absolute beginners,

C F G

they are safe in the shade for today

C F G

Uh huh

C F G

Uh huh

When you re absolute beginners,

it s a panoramic view
