

One Hundred Million Years

M. Ward

One Hundred Million Years. By: M. Ward off of his new album Hold Time.

Tabbed by: Jaren Jolley

This is my first Tab so bare with me

Verse 1:

D

This river that we ride has always been alive,

A D

Oh my soul one hundred million years.

D

This river that we ride will roll on when we die

A D

Oh my soul one hundred million years.

Chorus:

G

D

And this love this light between you and I

F7 D7 A7

Is older than that burning ball of fire up in the sky

G D

and the gale that fills our sail.

Verse 2:

D

And the lights that shine tonight have always been alive

A D

Oh my soul one hundred million years

D

Yeah the lights that shine tonight will burn on when we die

A D

oh my soul one hundred million years

Chorus:

G

D

And this love this light between you and I

F7 D7 A7

Is older than that burning ball of fire up in the sky

G D

and gale that fills our sail

Chorus:

G

D

Yeah this love this light between you and I

F7

D7

A7

Is older than that burning ball of fire up in the sky

D

And the gale that fills our sail.
