

Requiem

M. Ward

Requiem

M. Ward

Transcribed by John McKeon

(Drop D tuning)

D: 004232

D7: 000212

Dadd6: 000202

G: x55433

A: x02220 (x77655)

G#dim: x5643x (xx643x)

Intro: D

D

Well he stormed with his feet

D

He clapped with his hands

D

G

D

He summoned all of his joy when he laughed

D

A

It suffered all of his joy when he cried.

D

D7

And sometimes when he got into talkin

G

G#dim

Man he could rattle on and on

D

A

D

He was a good man and now hes gone.

D

In war he was a tiger

D

When it was over, like a dove.

D

G

D

He summoned all of his strength in the climb.

D

A

It suffered all of his strength in the fall.

D

D7

Sometimes when he got into fighting

G

G#dim

Man he could fight with you all day long.

D

A

D

He was a good man, and now he s gone.

D G D
 He put his trust in a higher power
D G A
 He held his power like a holy grail.
D G D
 He summoned all of his faith in the lifting
D G A
 It suffered all of his faith in the fail.
 D D7
 His heart was stronger than a heavy metal bullet
 G G#dim
 That s why I dedicate this song;
 D A D
 He was a good man and now he s gone.

(Solo) (D G D G A D G D G A)
 D D7
 His heart was stronger than a heavy metal bullet
 G G#dim
 That s why I dedicate this song.

D A Dadd6