Intro: Am

Am E Am E Am
Scarred by the devil with pock mark on cheek.
 E Am E
She sang like an angel with a voice that would Am never keep

Am C Am C C
And I mourn for her when her spirit rise. And I E Am
don t want to go home.

Am E Am E
Pretty and peculiar. She glowed when dawn turned Am E Am
dusk. The light gave off a buzz and the buzz it
E Am
gave off sparks.

Am C Am C C
I watched for crying but her eyes were dry. And I
 E Am
don t want to go home.

Am E Am E
The day before Christmas her dear daddy took
Am E Am E
flight. She didn t bat her lashes as he walked into Am
the night.

Am C Am C C
She screams for no one because no one is alone. And
 E Am

I don't want to go home.

Am E Am E Am
I weep without thinking. I quiver at a touch. I E Am E Am
will never be her. I wasn't built that tough.

Am C Am C
She talks without speaking. I don't talk at all. Am

C C E Am
Oh, when I'm this alone- I don't want to go home.

Am C Am C Am
History repeats and brings me to my knees. Over my

C Am C Am
shoulder she's older and older and I'm just a C Am
little girl.
