A straw headed woman, and a barrel chested man,

A pocket full of posies with a hat brim full of sand,

A dog chasing the tumbleweeds, across the sandy floor,

That drift along the platform, through the ticket office door,

Ooh - waiting for the train that never comes,
F# F
Ooh - waiting for the train that never comes,
G Am C F Am
But don t tell me there s nothing coming, you don t fool me,
G Am C F
I hear the ghost train rumbling along the tracks - set them free,
G# G
And I hear them,

Paid to keep an eye out for the gipsy caravan,
