Madonna

F#m

Surely whoever speaks
To me in the right voice
Him or her I shall follow

F#m

Who needs the sun

Bm

When the rain s so full of life

F#m

Who needs the sky

It s here in your arms

Bm

I want to be buried

F#m

You are my sanctuary

Repete cifra.

Who needs the sun

When the rain s so full of life

Who needs the sky

When the ground's open wide

It s here in your arms

I want to be buried

You are my sanctuary

Who needs a smile

When a tear s so full of love

Who needs a home

With the stars up above

It s here in your heart

I want to be carried

You are my sanctuary

Who needs the light

With the darkness in your eyes

Who needs to sleep

With the stars in the sky

It s here in your soul

I want to be married

You are my sanctuary

F#m

And the earth was void and empty

And darkness was upon

The face of the earth

(Refrão)

F#m

Bm

Is all of this pain so necessary

Bm

F#m

You are my sanctuary

F#m

Surely whoever speaks

To me in the right voice

Him or her I shall follow

Bm

As the water follows the moon

Silently

Who needs the sun

With fluid steps

Who needs the sky

Around the globe

Who needs to sleep

I hear your voice

You are my sanctuary

You are, You are my sanctuary
