it s been 730 days
since i fell through the cracks in your concrete
you hit the wall in me
i was sinking deep into the sea searching for a better life we forgot what a perfect spot it was a long road for the two of us it took one step
to throw it all away away

and i want you to notice
that i ll never forget you
for all those times
and all those nights
i ll never forget you

were you in paris
on the 1st of may?
i thought i saw you
in the corner of a cafe
i remember how we used to say this is the city
for the perfect getaway

never forget you
