

Not Meant To Be Broken
Mads Langer

verse:

C#m A E B

bridge:

F#m A E B

chorus:

A E B F#m x2

A A

it seems the path is missing it s like we re second guessing we should ve known by now same old vows repeating all of our lies revealing our patience s running out we re not meant to be broken but that is what we seem to be lost right out in the open shattered but we still believe

and it feels like
we re falling to pieces knowing you and i we re wishing for changes knowing that we re not meant to be broken we re far from where we started distant but not parted there s only trails of tears how i wish that i had seen what was coming we should ve looked for shelter but we kept on running it s suddenly so clear that

not meant to be broken broken broken
