[Intro]
C Am Em F
[Verse 1]
Heartbreak Saturday nights, getting ready
Am
To make you see that I m better already
I put on every perfume
And I do it to hurt you, oh
Make sure I smell like your bedroom when I was in it
Wearing the dress that I met you in, sent you spinning
And I flirt with your friends
But it s a beggar s revenge
Cause she s with you again
And I try to look away
[Chorus]
Cause in my head, in my head, in my head, in my head
I m yours, and I should know better but I
Can t forget, won t forget how it was before
Oh it felt forever, baby
We should still be holding on
I should still put on your coat
And when the music dies out
You should still take me home
Cause in my head, in my head, in my head, in my head
    Am
```

[Verse 2]
This dress too nice for a jacket, so I m freezing
You re walking past and on habit, I lean in Em
Close to your touch cause I still think we re an us
I know I should give it up, oh
Feels like half of me s missing
But there s no hope
Am
You don t care who I m kissing
When the lights go
Oh I know, I know that you don t
[Chorus]
 Cause in my head, in my head, in my head, in my head
I m yours, and I should know better but I
Can t forget, won t forget how it was before
Oh it felt forever, baby
We should still be holding on
I should still put on your coat
And when the music dies out
You should still take me home
Cause in my head, in my head, in my head, in my head
    Am
I m yours
                   G
(In my head, in my head, in my head
I m yours)
[Bridge]
Oh, I m still hurting and I m still here
You re still not looking at me, my dear
