Verse 1:

Cm

It s about time now that

G#

you find out your egos

a coffin so lie down

Cm

It s about time now that

G#

you put your pride away

Cm

Cause there s something about how the words sound when

G#

they re coming out

of your own mouth

Cm

That make you wonder

G#

what you think this weighs

Chorus 1:

Cm

G#

We re the lucky ones

Eb Bb
And we tore
Cm
these days undone
G#
We re the bastard sons
Eb
Who squandered every Bb Cm-- x2
mile they let us run

Verse 2:

Cm
You ve heard enough
G#
by now to know
Cm
There s lines to cross
and lines to leave
G# Bb
alone You re worth a Cm G#
fools weight in gold
Cm G# Bb
Until they let you go

Verse 3:

Cm
For what it s worth I
think you ve got some nerve Bb Cm
It s what you earn and
G# Bb
not what you deserve
Cm
That keep the feet below your knees planted to the ground So set your sights
ahead and chase it down

Chorus 2:

Cm G#
We re the lucky ones
Eb Bb
And we tore
Cm
these days undone
G#
We re the bastard sons

Eb

Who squandered every

Bb

mile they let us run

Cm G#

If this is all

Eb Bb

a dream Then I beg you

Cm

to let me sleep

G#

Cause I ve found something

Eb Bb

worth all I ve given up

Bridge:

Cm G# Eb Fm Cm

Give in fade out

G# Eb Bb Cm

Raise the bar or set it down

G# Eb

Cause you can t change the

Fm Bb

rules they made to suit yourself
