

Broken down by the sound of your prelude that you played
To open our symphony

-Guitar starts-

Bm G Bm
I ve been sleeping with the sunrise watching hours pass away
G A D
Incidentally I m just waiting for the dusk to kill the day
A
But now I m waiting for your call
Bm G
While I bang on this piano like you care at all
D A Bm
So I ll waste these nights for a while
G A
But I ll be holding onto you forever
D A Bm
And this is where my heart is cold and torn
G
As I hear the words you re saying tonight
A A D
I m falling for them every single time

-Interlude: D, A, Bm, G

As the roses dip their heads a little further to the ground
D
There s a season change and all the pinks and whites have turned to brown
A Bm
Will we make it through the fall
G
Yeah are we gonna make it through this fall
â€˜cause I don t wanna fall with you
D A Bm
So I ll waste these nights for a while (I m trying,)
G A
But I ll be holding onto you forever (We re dying,)
D A Bm
And this is where my heart is cold and torn (Yeahhhh)
G
I m taken by your hope-filled lines
A G
They re well designed and dragging me along
A D
I ll be waiting for this chance and I ll be gone

Enjoy
