

Edzells Bonnie Braes
Malinky

[Intro]

Am

[Verse]

Am G Am
Come all friends and companions and listen unto me
C Em
I ll sing tae you a song though, it s not with merry glee
Am Em
It was concernin slighted love, the cause of all my waes
Am G Am
That maks me rue that e er I come tae Edzell s Bonnie Braes

[Verse]

Am G Am
It s oft I ve fed my fleecy flock doon by the North Esk stream
C Em
By fickle fortune I was led untae a comely dame
Am Em
Her beauty bright shone in my sight, like Phoebus shinin rays
Am G Am
Which maks me rue that e er I come tae Edzell s Bonnie Braes

[Instrumental]

[Verse]

G Am
She seemed like fair Diana, in stature sweet and mild
C Em
And in my arms wis she to me, like nature s darlin child
Am C Em
Baith night an morn ma hert doth burn wi love, its flame in blaze
Am G Am
Which maks me rue that e er I come tae Edzell s Bonnie Braes

[Verse]

G Am
I dearly loved that fair maid as I dearly loved my life
C Em
I asked if she d giee her consent tae be ma wedded wife
Am C Em
I asked her hand in wedlock bands, wi me tae spend her day
Am G Am
To which she had consented on Edzell s Bonnie Braes

[Instrumental]

[Verse]

But now she s gone and left me, and left me aa forlorn
Ma joys are turned tae grief baith nicht and day I murn
But heaven will reward her weel for her deceitful ways
She ll mind the vows she made tae me on Edzell s Bonnie Braes

[Verse]

But while the crimson current flows, gently in my veins
There s no anither fair maid shall win ma hert again
For single so I shall remain, til death doth end my days
I ll murn for the lassie lost on Edzell s Bonnie Braes
