

Long Cookstown Malinky

[Intro]

C F C

[Verse]

C

For three long quarters I was a-weaving

F

And for my wages I was paid down

C

And for to buy a new suit of clothing

C

I made my way into long Cookstown

[Verse]

Am

C

But when I got to long Cookstown

Am

Nancy Whiskey I chanced to smell

C

Says I to myself, "I'll go and taste you

G

C

For three long quarters I loved you well"

[Verse]

C

So I went into an ale tavern

F

And I begged pardon for making free

C

But Nancy met me at every corner

C

"You're heartily welcome, young man," says she

[Verse]

Am

C

When I awoke the next morning

Am

I found myself in a strange bed

C

I tried to rise, but I wasn't able

G

C

For Nancy Whiskey held me by the head

[Verse]

C

So I went down to the landlady

F

To find what reckoning there was to pay

C

“It s fifteen shillings for ale and brandy

C

And after that you may go or stay”.

[Verse]

Am

C

I put my hand to my pocket

Am

That was the money I did lay down

C

On looking back into my small purse

G

C

All that remained was a bare half-crown

[Instrumental]

C F C Am C Am C G C

[Verse]

C

I put my head out of the window

F

A charming damsel I chanced to spy

C

With her I spent my two-and-tuppence

C

Till all remained was the fourp nny boy

[Verse]

Am

C

I will go back all to my weaving

Am

My little shuttle I will work awhile

C

And I will get some more pocket-money

G

C

For Nancy Whiskey did me beguile

[Outro]
