

The Road Tae Drumleman
Malinky

[Intro]

C            G   F   C   G   C   F   Csus4 C

[Verse]

C
Oh, the springtime returns tae the Laggan again
G
And the lark sweetly sings ower the green fertile plain
F                            C                            G
I ll tak the road that is dearest to me
C                            F                            Csus4   C
The road tae Drumleman that winds tae the sea

[Verse]

C
For I ve made many friends there on every green mile
G
And the folks always greet me with a wave and a smile
F                            C                            G
If I spend all my days here, it s happy I ll be
C                            F                            Csus4   C
On the road tae Drumleman that winds tae the sea

[Verse]

C
For we ve sat roond the fireside when the winter wind blew
G
And we ve laughed and we ve sang til the night was weel through
F                            C                            G
And we ve had a good dram and a wee cup o tea
C                            F                            Csus4   C
On the road tae Drumleman that winds tae the sea

[Verse]

C
And the lang summer days when we ve tramped the hills ower
G
Tae spend oors at the Eenans on Creggan s wild shore
F                            C                            G
And the soft summer twilight made shadows tae flee
C                            F                            Csus4   C
On the road tae Drumleman that winds tae the sea

[Verse]

C
Oh, these days passin swiftly bring changes, I know
G

And as time marches on from this place we must go
          F          C  G
But I ll ever remember while the heart beats in me
          C                  F                          Csus4  C
The road tae Drumleman that winds tae the sea

[Verse]

C
So the springtime returns tae the Laggan again
  G
And the lark sweetly sings ower the green fertile plain
F                          C  G
I ll tak the road that is dearest to me
          C                  F                          Csus4  C
The road tae Drumleman that winds tae the sea
