Reconnection Mama's Gun

verse 1
I m an island in the ocean, free and I belong to no-one
At the mercy of the sea, the waves play like a symphony, crashing in from all directions
Ships pass and planes fly over looks like they re speeding fast but going nowhere
and they never seem to notice me, no time for new discovery trying to reach their destination cause you can go
Bm
  anywhere you
                  G
Em
want, and you can be
whatever you wanna be
you can do anything,
do anything you want but don t you forget about G
me
verse 2
Stranded out here in the open, walking in the wrong direction in a lonely world of fantasy, don t give up so easily try to make a new connection

```

cause you can go
 anywhere you
want, and you can be
whatever you wanna be
you can do anything,
do anything you want but don t you forget about
