

Youre Not Crazy

MaMuse

D

There was a fire in your home

G

The story that has left its wound

D

Of the lovers who fell down

A

And broke your heart

D

Now the crows cackle from above

G

And all the swords direct their points

D

And the walls on every side

A

Surround you

D

Youâ€™re not crazy

G

Oh, your dreaming mind Is your alchemist

D

Equal parts fire and mist

G

Listen.

A

There is a message In your hands

D

And the only one that can know Your yes is the one that lives Inside your chest

G

D

All those others are just

A

Chasing sand

D

You were born of a wild wind

G

Here to tear all the burdens down

D

Start anew with your own hands

A

Build it up from the very ground

D

You were born with a strong will

G

Equally matched by a warm heart,
D
Creative vision and a clear sight
A
You knew your work From the very start

D
Oh, Youâ€™re not crazy

G
Youâ€™re not crazy

D . . . . G . D . A
When we came

G
We are your family, We are alive and well

D

G
circle around you, Weâ€™re here to help you

Weâ€™ll pull you through

D
And the path you choose Is bound to show you
