[Verse]
   Em                              G
 Pull the trigger, break down in a love affair
              Am       Bm      Am          G
When I said I didn’t care, you started searching for tomorrow
        Em                                  G
 Yeah pull the trigger, my girl you’re running all alone
               Am       Bm      Am   G
 I said I was back home, but I’m far away

[Bridge]
            Em       Bm         Am     Em
 Cause there ain’t no point in the words I write
    Am              G
 There ain’t no way to get me
            Em  Bm            Am     Em
 But it sure felt right when I saw your eyes
   Am                                        Bm
 But now they feel like, oh yeah they feel like Mondays

[Chorus]
    C      D     Em                        Am
 And all my senses seem to shine through the day
   C                      D             Em(Intro)
 Seem to shine through the day, honey that’s okay

      C        D       Em                        Am
Yes all my senses seem to shine in the night
 C                        D                        Em(Intro)
Seem to shine in the night, honey that's alright

[Verse]
 Em                                    G
 In your heart girl, I see a jealous butterfly
                      Am        Bm        Am      G
You wanted me high, love, but I'm sober still
       Em                                            G
Yeah in your heart girl, there's nothing left but misery
                        Am              Bm            Am   G
Come dance while Im getting free, I'm gonna lie again

[Bridge]
                    Em  Bm                    Am   Em
And there ain't no point in the words I write
    Am                        G
There ain't no way to get me
            Em   Bm              Am    Em
But it sure was high when I saw your smile
 Am                                            B
But now you're always, oh yes you're always gone girl

[Chorus]
      C        D       Em                        Am
And all my senses seem to shine through the day
 C                        D                        Em(Intro)
Seem to shine through the day, honey that's okay
      C        D       Em                        Am
Yes all my senses seem to shine in the night
 C                        D                        B
Seem to shine in the night, honey that's alright

 oh yeah yeah

[Solo]

C  D  Em  Am  C  D  B  B

[Chorus]
      C        D       Em                        Am
Yeah all my senses seem to shine in the night
 C                        D                        Em(intro)
Seem to shine in the night, honey that's alright
      C        D       Em                        Am
And all my senses seem to be in this song
  C                        D                        Em(intro)
Thinking all day long, honey what went wrong
                        Em(intro)
Tell me what went wrong
                        Em(intro)

Tell me what went wrong

Em

Tell me what went wrong
