```
G                                                    E7
I ve gotta climb this mountain yeah I ll deal with you later
      G                                                    E7
If you burst into laugh then I will ch-ch-ch-choke you with cough
      G                                                    E7
I am better of dead, I m rolling high and I ll be gone for tomorrow
```

```

G                                     E7
Tough looking star, painted in black, smoothed in white cream
G                                     E7
Sing lazy songs, lyrics haven t been the same without, yeah
G                                     E7
And when the lunatics are coming in the late afternoon, I will comfort me

```

(refrão)

```

A7                                     C7
With saying that I m just a one of a kind
A7                                     E7
Oh yeah! All right!

E

G

And when the lunatics are coming in the late afternoon

A7

E

You may comfort me by saying that you're all by a tune, and you will say:

G

I wonder what's so wrong about it, I wonder what's so happy about it

A7

E

And I want it now and you will never be alive

E

I want it now, but you were never my kind

A7

E

So cry at night when the band pullet out
