

Song For Aberdeen
Mando Diao

This is the version they play in Above And Beyond unplugged stuff, it was a pity that none had tabbed it before so i did it, hope you ll like it cause it s an amazing song with amazing lyrics ;)

capo on 4th

C

Well I know it must be hard

Em

To fall in love with a guy like me

Am

I don t blame you for the choice you made

G

I just want you to be free

F

But the pain is never easy

G

And I know it s not your fault

C

But of all the stones that hit me

Em

This one knocks me... to the floor

C

She was an alcoholic artist

Em

With too much makeup round her eyes

Am

And I never knew her real name

G

She was sunbeam wrapped in lies

F

But I love her and I m sorry

G

And that s all there is to say

C

It s like a fairy from the ancient time

Em

And I hope it, I hope it stays that way

C

And when I woke up on your kitchen floor

Em

With a headache made in hell

Am

And the flowers that I gave you

G

Smiled at me from the window pane

F

Then I thought I must be crazy

G

Cause I m feeling kinda good

C

And then when Satan helped me up again

G

G

It was then I, it was then I understood

C

Well I was never meant to be a good boy

Em

I was never meant to go to school

Am

Well it s guys like me who get somewhere

G

Cause everybody pity the fool

F

Now it s payback for the rainy days

G

Now it s no more me and you

C

Well I got mine, you got yours babe

G

Now it s payback

G

Now it s me against the world

It was the last time I forgave you
