

Yo-Yo

Mandy Moore

This song is so cool. In the verse, there is no guitar, just weird effects and drums, but I added my own stuff for a cool acoustical performance. If you don't like the verse part, then you can change it yourself

For the intro, constantly strum until next chord except this same sad song just strum the chord once and then when C comes then constantly strum again. For the first line of the bridge, just strum the chord twice (2) or three times (3). This part was hard, but I think I have it. Then the 2nd line go back to playing it normally.

D Dsus D D Dsus D X 3
It's broken I know what you want.

Em E
I keep hang... Got some attachment.....

A Am
Way down is still...

C A
I've told myself that it isn't right, but it

Em E
Yet.... The more you....

A Am
The more I need protecting

A A G C
Can't see myself singing this same sad song

BRIDGE:

D (2) Dsus (3) D (2) Dsus (3) D (2)
Oh, and.... Why I am

D (back to Dsus D strum)
You can only bring me up and down.

D
I've got.....

Dsus D
So I....

Chorus: D Dsus D (repeat until finished)
Then do verse 2

And bridge with different words

OTHER THING:

G

Didn t I adore you?

A G A D Dsus D

Didn t I.... satisfied

G

Didn t I....

A G A D Dsus

For every.... Downward slide

D Dsus D

That I....

D Dsus D D Dsus D

Didn t I adore you? satisfied

Then repeat for the didn t I assure you. Then, from here on, all you have to play is

D Dsus D

Know when and where, it isn t too hard.
