

Fearless Punk Ballad
Manic Street Preachers

Lovely Send Away The Tigers era b-side. :)

Intro: G (x2)

Verse 1 & 2:

G D
At 21 I thought this song was over
Em C
At 29 my eyes closed tight and suffered
Cm G
Recurring dreams still unrelenting
D
The world turned west, we found redemption

G D
At 26 something was delivered
Em C
No time to think and no time to worry
Cm G
Wrote my words and they made more sense
D
They soon became, the best defence

Chorus:

B Em
And the rain came down, so, so hard
C G
Like a fearless Punk ballad
B Em
And the rain came down, so, so hard
C D
Like a fearless Punk ballad

Fill: G (x2)

Verse 3

G D
At 17 it all came together
Em C
And the sky broke through with so much colour
Cm G
We fell in love with one another
D
I guess we longed, to be discovered

Chorus

Solo:

G(x3), D, Em, C, Cm, G, D

Chorus

Outro:

Dsus4, D (x3)

Hope you enjoy playing the song and if there are any problems with it don't hesitate to comment telling me what can be changed to make it sound any better. :)
