

This Sullen Welsh Heart
Manic Street Preachers

This is simple to play, plucking is consistent throughout with occasional hammer-ons.

Just play the bass string of each chord and the two higher strings alternately.

I got this
from watching James performing it live.

Featuring Lucy Rose

CAPO ON 2nd

C (can add the occasional hammer on to most of these chords)

I don't want my children to grow up like me

F

It's just so destroying, it's a mocking disease

C

A wasting disease

C

Some days I wake up with love still alive

F

I try to go to sleep, but I cannot close my eyes

C

I cannot close my eyes

Am

I can't fight this war any more

Em

Time to surrender, time to move on

Am

So line up the firing squads, kiss goodbye to what you want

Go with the flow, go home

Em

You can keep on struggling when you're alone

G

When you're alone

F

This sullen Welsh heart

It won't leave, it won't give up

The hating half of me

C

Has won the battle easily

F

This sullen Welsh heart

It won't leave, it won't give up

The hating half of me

Am

Has won the battle easily

G

The battle easily

C

C

The act of creation saves us from despair

F

A phrase that keeps repeating in my head

C

In my head

C

It s not enough to succeed others must fail

F

My unhappy mantra I wish I could escape

C

I wish I could escape

Am

I can t fight this war any more

Em

Time to surrender, time to move on

Am

So line up the firing squads, kiss goodbye to what you want

Go with the flow, go home

Em

You can keep on struggling when you re alone

G

When you re alone

F

This sullen Welsh heart

It won t leave, it won t give up

The hating half of me

C

Has won the battle easily

F

This sullen Welsh heart

It won t leave, it won t give up

The hating half of me

Am

Has won the battle easily

F

This sullen Welsh heart

It won t leave, it won t give up

The hating half of me

Am

Has won the battle easily

F

This sullen Welsh heart

It won't leave, it won't give up
The hating half of me

Am

Has won the battle easily

G

The battle easily

Repeat G until end.