

Emily

Why won't you give me the time of day?
Tell me the reasons that you run away
Did I do something? Cause I'm so confused
Feels like you want me but you're afraid

Emily, Oh Emily, don't be mean to me

You're doing things that are hard to read

Oh, why are you fighting the chemistry

Is there something in your past, did someone hurt you so bad?

I just wanna set you free

So tell me what you want me to do

Oh Emily, don't be mean to me

I'm just trying to find a way to your heart

Oh Emily, will I ever be

The one you call when you are all alone in your bed

The one that you try but you can't get out of your head?

Emily, Oh Emily, don't be mean to me
