

Lucky Acoustic
Marc Broussard

Some of the chords are strange variations of the listing, but they re right.
It helped me to watch a video while I learned the song to see exactly when the changes are made. The placement of the chords may have gone a little screwy in transit from notepad to here, so good luck, and happy playing! :D

E B6 (walk up on 6th string)
I think it s a miracle
C#m7 A7
that you re layin here, right by my side.

Sometimes it takes a while and other times it comes naturally.
But I took one look at you
I knew that you were meant for me.
You know that I m not gonna walk away.
Be here tomorrow just like today.

And I ll never have to look for love again.

So lucky I found you.
So happy I m with you.
Oh baby I know, there s no mistakin I m better with you.
And I m grateful, grateful, grateful I got lucky with you.
