On the steps of the museum, I wrote a line or two
G#m F#

But it took a while to find my way back to something true like you E

E G#m
This is where I lay my hat, this is where they know my name

E G#m F#
This is where they show me that a man s not so alone - no
F# E

Maybe I m already home (Sometimes you ve got to go back)
G#m

Maybe I m already home (Sometimes you don t know why)

E
Rolling down my window, burning up the daze
G#m

Cutting through the veil that keeps on blinding me

I was only sleeping, waiting here for you
G#m F#

Waiting for your touch that keeps reminding me

Well I ve seen the world of wonders, been underneath it too
G#m

But it took a while just to find my way
F# E

Back to something true that I like

CHORUS (Second Half 2X) Yeah Iâ€™m already home

F# F# B E
Why it had to take me so long
