[Verse 1]

E            A                            D            G
Ancient walls of flowers tumbling down

Black cat petals and a smiling clown

I like to keep them in a jar beside
E    A                            D            G
Just enough to mess my mind inside

[Chorus]

But I never heard

E    A                            D            G
You callin from the sun

Did you ever care

E    A                            D            G
To shoot your silver gun

No I never heard

E    A                            D            G
