I tell tales, tall as cliffs, you ve got a lisp
Em D

A G
All those weekends lost by the lake
Em
Where you said I needed be afraid

Of all those devils on the wall
A
That make a fella small
G
When he s feelin brave
Em
They take his wine away

D
There were posters on the wall
A
I swear my mother saw
G
That I d been up all night
Em
Up all night

D A
And you came well equipped
G Em
With a gun on your hip and some poison on your lips
D A
But when we wake up in our make up
G Em
We ll be clean, we won t have nowhere to be

D A
Oh, but I can t talk to you the way I ve wanted to
G Em
I ve been tellin lies, but I ll tell you the truth
D A

G Em D
I ve been tellin lies, but I ll tell you the truth

A G A D
Darling, I m tired and I should be leaving, leaving

A G A D

A G A D A G A D

A G A D
Darling, I m tired and i should be leaving, leaving

A G A D
