

German Motor Car

Margot & the Nuclear So and So's

Band- Margot and the Nuclear So & So s

Song- German Motor Car

Album- Not Animal!

Tabber: Jon Green

This is my version of German Motor Car off of the Not Animal! album by Margot and the Nuclear So & So's. The song is really simple to play and fun to play. Listen to the song to get the rhythm down. Sorry that the chord names are wrong but I don't know the correct names for them, so sorry. Plus I think there are a couple of mistakes in the chord progressions. Let me know where you think they are at and I will change the tab.

Standard Tuning is used for this song.

Chord Shapes:

	G	Cm	Gm	Gmaj7	Em	C	C7	Am	C*	F

Well it sure felt nice getting ripped apart in that junked out german motorcar

	G	Cm
I ve got you

(Main Riff)

Well, the robots cleaned at alarming speed all the bedroom sheets and the tv screens

	G without you
	Gm	Cm	G	Gmaj7	Em

I haven't a thing to do, no more

C C7 Am C G Em
this is how you ditch someone that drives you mad.

(Main Riff when lyrics begin)

I struggled and swam through a panicked sea
I had a backyard gang and I dressed in green.

G

I had you

Gm Cm G Gmaj7 Em
So I never had the blues, not me

C C7 Am C G Em
this is how you ditch someone that drives you mad

Am Em
So, I will sit right down and stare at the wall
Am Em
and pray that you are nothing like your photo at all
Am Em
I will sit right down and stare at the wall
Am Em
and pray that you are nothing like your photo at all

Interlude:

F (Played at the 9th fret), F (Played at the 10th fret) (Four times)

(Silent)

Well it sure felt nice getting ripped apart
