[Verse]

(Different stumming pattern. Listen to the song)

Our talk is small, I m seven inches tall

And you should keep the apartment

So here s my keys, changed all the bills

We re only built to spill and wonder where the heart went

And you ve been taking me for granted.

And I thought you d feel the same as me

It s time that I come clean, but

But for now can we just both pretend to sleep

Sometimes the one you want is not the one you need

What goes around don t come around

You should know me by now
