

Drilling Holes
Marillion

Marillion " Drilling Holes

Intro: Em

C C#m
A man came to drill holes in the afternoon

D
And by the evening

Ebm Em
Most of the afternoon had gone

C C#m
I seem to have slept through the morning

But in the afternoon

Ebm Em
A morning is yet to come

C C#m
A girl came to help out in the kitchen

And by the evening

Ebm Em
We found we were all washed up

C
We ate on the lawn

C#m
With the insects

We burned incense

Ebm Em
Most of the band turned up

Bb Am
It was just one of those days

Gm F#m
When the mind strays

F
One of those days

Bb Am
When everyone plays

Gm
One of those days

F#m F
When everyone stays

Bb Gm Em
And all of the dreaming goes on

C C#m
A woman arrived in a panic
With a picnic
Ebm Em
Better to give than receive

C C#m
A man came to pick holes in the logic
He wore plastic
Ebm Em
And shoes you would hardly believe

The evening arrived
C#m D
Slightly early like a pygmy
Ebm Em
Chewing the wrong kind of leaves

Bb Am
It was just one of those days
Gm F#m
When the mind strays
F
One of those days
Bb Am
When everyone plays
Gm
One of those days
F#m F
When everyone stays
Bb Gm Em
And all of the dreaming goes on

All in Em

We ordered extra tea
Listened to XTC
Under a shady tree
Went back to bed at three
It was cool
As can be
(two sugars for me..)

Ahahahaah-part: follow the same chord progression as in the verses

It was just one of those days part: the same as before, ending on Em

Thanks for looking up this tab. I think it's pretty solid. If you want to compliment me or if you want to give me some advice, please do.
