

Putting Holes In Happiness

Marilyn Manson

I based this on another version from here, but hopefully this is more helpful.
PS: this is a simplified version without the solos etc.

xx

Verse 1:

Em The sky was blonde like her, it was a day C
To take the child out back and shoot it D
Em I could ve buried all my dead D
Up in her cemetery head C
Em She had dirty word witchcraft D
I was at the deep end of your skin C
And it seemed like one car wreck D
But I knew it was a horrid tragedy C D
C Ways to make the tiny satisfaction disappear...

Chorus:

Em Blow out the candles D
On all my Frankensteins C
Em At least my death wish will come true C
You taste like Valentine s, and we cry D
You re like a birthday Em
I should ve picked the photograph C
It lasted longer than you... D

Verse 2:

Em Putting holes in happiness C
We ll paint the future black D
If it needs a colour

Em C
My death sentence is a story

Who ll be digging when you finally let me die? D

Em C
The romance of our assassination

D

If you re Bonnie I ll be your Clyde

Em
And the grass is greener here

C D

I can see all of your snakes

C D

You wear your ruins well, please run away with me to Hell...

Repeat the chorus, and you re done! Simple. :D
