Am

Off she trots to the psychiatric hospit...

Am

Dm

All she s got is the memory of a girl that used to laugh a lot

Am

Now she s very angry cause they say she s lost the plot

And she s laughing in the mirror at her paper dress

Am

Em

F

Cause she has a troubled mind, a troubled mind

Am

Rosie Black, she walked up in here wired up on crack

Dm

It s for the kids who have low self esteem

Am

They ve got no concept of reality

G

F

Living their lives inside a fantasy

Am

Em

F

Cause they have troubled minds, troubled minds

Dm

C

G

Wipe the white golden dust into these broken hands

Dm

C

G

Must depend on a friend that will understand

Dm

Am

Em

Dm

C

Like the glitter making love to the gleam

Dm

C

F

Just remember things aren t always what they seem

Em G Dm C

Ooh...

Am

Peter Pan could not admit he had become a man

Dm

He smashed the mirror into a million bits

Am

Now all he seems to do is stare and sit

F

Painting pictures of a life that he ll never find

Am

Em F

Inside his troubled mind, troubled minds

Am

There s a sweet little guy called Mars

Am

Each night he cries, this ain t the place I m meant to be

Dm

He hides his dreams deep within a wooden box

Am

He hides his secrets deep within his woolen socks

G

F

Life will pass him by

Am

G F

Inside his troubled mind, troubled minds

Dm

Must depend on a friend that will understand

Dm

Am

Em Dm C

Like the glitter making love to the gleam

Dm

Just remember things aren t always what they seem

Dm

G

We can kill for the dust we need to fill these hands

Dm

C

G

Can t depend on a friend that will understand

Dm

Am

Em Dm C

Hate the glitter, we have murdered the dream

Dm
