Gm F Eb Cm F

Gm

Off she trots to the psychiatric hospit...

Gm

Cm

All she s got is the memory of a girl that used to laugh a lot

Gm

Now she s very angry cause they say she s lost the plot

And she s laughing in the mirror at her paper dress

Cause she has a troubled mind, a troubled mind

Gm

Rosie Black, she walked up in here wired up on crack

Cm

It s for the kids who have low self esteem

Gm

They ve got no concept of reality

F Eb

Living their lives inside a fantasy

Gm Dm Eb

Cause they have troubled minds, troubled minds

Cm

Bb F

Wipe the white golden dust into these broken hands

Must depend on a friend that will understand

Like the glitter making love to the gleam

Just remember things aren t always what they seem

Dm F Cm Bb

Ooh...

Gm

Peter Pan could not admit he had become a man

Cm

He smashed the mirror into a million bits

Gm

Now all he seems to do is stare and sit

F

Eb

Painting pictures of a life that he ll never find

Gm

Dm Eb

Inside his troubled mind, troubled minds

Gm

There s a sweet little guy called Mars

Gm

Each night he cries, this ain t the place I m meant to be

Cm

He hides his dreams deep within a wooden box

Gm

He hides his secrets deep within his woolen socks

F

Eb

Life will pass him by

Gm

F Eb

Inside his troubled mind, troubled minds
