Bm A G Em A

Bm

Off she trots to the psychiatric hospit...

Bm

Em

All she s got is the memory of a girl that used to laugh a lot

Bm

Now she s very angry cause they say she s lost the plot

A

G

And she s laughing in the mirror at her paper dress

Bm

F#m

G

Cause she has a troubled mind, a troubled mind

Bm

Rosie Black, she walked up in here wired up on crack

Em

It s for the kids who have low self esteem

Bm

They ve got no concept of reality

A

G

Living their lives inside a fantasy

Bm

F#m G

Cause they have troubled minds, troubled minds

Em

D

A

Wipe the white golden dust into these broken hands

Em

D

A

Must depend on a friend that will understand

Em

Bm

F#m Em D

Like the glitter making love to the gleam

Em

D

A

G

Just remember things aren t always what they seem

F#m A Em D

Ooh...

Bm

Peter Pan could not admit he had become a man

Em

He smashed the mirror into a million bits

Bm

Now all he seems to do is stare and sit

A

G

Painting pictures of a life that he ll never find

Bm

F#m G

Inside his troubled mind, troubled minds

Bm

There s a sweet little guy called Mars

Bm

Each night he cries, this ain t the place I m meant to be

Em

He hides his dreams deep within a wooden box

Bm

He hides his secrets deep within his woolen socks

A

G

Life will pass him by

Bm

A G

Inside his troubled mind, troubled minds

Em

D

A

Wipe the white golden dust into these broken hands

Em

D

A

Must depend on a friend that will understand

Em

Bm

F#m Em D

Like the glitter making love to the gleam

Em

D

A

G

Just remember things aren t always what they seem

Em

D

A

We can kill for the dust we need to fill these hands

Em

D

A

Can t depend on a friend that will understand

Em

Bm

F#m Em D

Hate the glitter, we have murdered the dream

Em
