Gold
Marina
[Primeira Parte]
 You we got it in the palm of your hands
 It s slipping through your fingers like sand
 Cause they don t understand who you are
Doesn t matter long as I am your star, star
               D
         Yeah I know that I need the gold
           D
                 G
But what I love can t be bought or sold
[Refrão]
                  Em
Don t think I want what I used to want
Don t think I need what I used to need
Don t think I want what I used to want
Don t think I see what I used to see
[Segunda Parte]
                 Em
I ve been waiting, waiting for the penny to drop
                  Em
I ve been working, working to get back what I lost
         Em
                     D
 But whatever happens I ll be okay
                                 D
 Cause fortune s running out of my veins, my veins (uh huh)
                     D
                                         Α
                                                                   D
                            G
                                               Em
         You can t take away the Midas touch so you better make a way
For a Greek gold rush
