

The Sun Always Reminds Me Of You
Marissa Nadler

capo 4th fret

intro: A

A

It s a beautiful day

F#m

And I went for a walk

D

But I saw that old dirt path

A

Where we used to talk

Where is the rain

F#m

Cause some spring lovers

D

Are bringing me down again

The years have come

And your hands have gone

But your land is something

Lost in a song

Why does the sun always remind me of you

Yes it does

Bm

I hope a new day will come

A

And cover up what I done

C#7

Why does the sun always remind me of you

I would know

That there ain t nothing but love songs

On the radio

Turn on the colored days

To peel away the skin

The sun will turn my hands to gold

More than any alchemist

Sea water it rounds the edge of shard and turns to sand

I heard you bought a house

Bm

And light it up with glass and second hand

Why does the sun always remind me of you

Yes it does

I hope a new day will come

And cover up what I have done

Why does the sun always remind me of you

I would know

That there aint nothing but love songs

On the radio

D C#m

Always reminds me of you

Yes it does

D C#m

It always reminds me of you

Yes it does,

F#

Yes it does,

Bm

Yes it does

Dm

Oh

B

E

Why does the sun always remind me of you

Yes it does

C#m

I hope a new day will come

B

And cover up what I have done

Why does the sun always remind me of you

Yes it does

I hope a new day will come

And cover up what I have done

B

Eb7

Why does the sun always remind of you

I would know

That there ain t nothing but love songs

B
